

Remote Video Streaming

www.harriscaprock.com/rvs

Harris CapRock's Remote Video Streaming service reliably delivers a visual link into critical offsite operations anywhere in the world. Available in three scalable solutions, the service is optimized for use in the Harris CapRock network and supports a variety of applications with centralized, instant access to real-time video streams.

BENEFITS

- > Enables remote engineering and problem diagnosis
- > Accelerates problem resolution via real-time collaboration
- > Reduces operating costs and travel time

SUPPORTS MONITORING AND INSPECTION FOR

Subsea Structures

Maintenance and repair
Installations
General cleanup

Remote Facilities

Supply and equipment depots
Controlled offices or areas
Entrances and exits

Remote Video Streaming

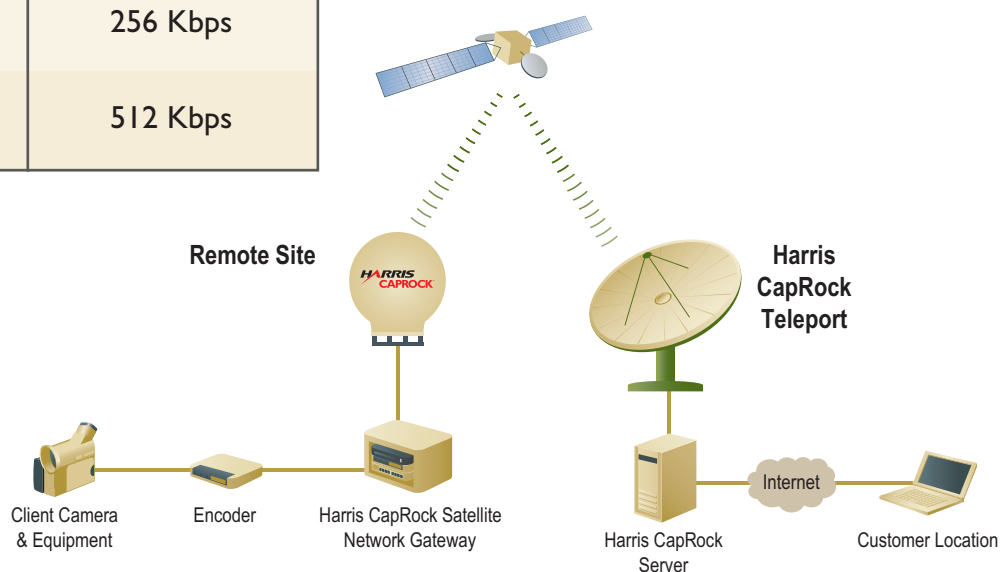

www.harriscaprock.com/rvs

AT-A-GLANCE FEATURES

- > Delivers real-time video streams via standard Web browser
- > Interfaces with existing analog video distribution systems
- > Provides efficient bandwidth utilization through modern compression technology
- > Permits multiple users to access single satellite video stream
- > Allows for short-term service package upgrades¹

¹ Requires a contract term of at least one year

Service Package ²	Bandwidth Required
Standard	64 Kbps
Enhanced	256 Kbps
Premium³ <small>³ Available only with SCPC service</small>	512 Kbps

² Frames per second and resolution are customizable. Customers may incur additional charges after initial installation.